

Bridgeport Center, in Tampa, sells for $40 million

🕒 March 2, 2023 👤 by Jo-Lynn Brown 💬 0 comments

Cushman & Wakefield, a real estate services firm, in Tampa, has arranged the $40 million sale of Bridgeport Center, a nine-story and 180,257-square-foot office building, in Tampa’s Westshore submarket.

The office building was sold by an undisclosed seller and acquired by NAI/Merin Hunter Codman, according to a statement.

Bridgeport Center is a Class A office building, spanning nine stories, and is located at 5201 W. Kennedy Blvd., adjacent to Westshore Plaza and just south of Tampa International Airport.

The property includes an attached parking garage, water views and walkable amenities such as retail and dining establishments.

Share

Print page